

Short Courses @ Mattersey Hall

24th – 28th May 2009

Children's Work:

Liz Shah presents this 5-day course

'Church for Kids' is a training course in Children's Ministry. It will encourage you to reflect on your current practice and inspire you to develop your ministry to children. It covers areas such as managing behaviour, preparing children's talks, and storytelling, puppetry, worship, assemblies, discipleship, leading children to Christ, games with a point, family services, working with children in the community and much more.

Music & Worship :

Howard Williams presents this 5-day course

A mixture of theological teaching, question and answer sessions and practical demonstrations. This module will include song writing and band techniques (+ all that working with a team involves); study of biblical approaches to worship (e.g. Micah 6:8) and leading worship in a variety of settings.

Creative Arts :

Alex and Amanda Brown present this 5-day course

A short theological overview of the place of creative arts in and out of church, practical advice and experience in drama, storytelling and creative movement. It kits out those who attend with a bank of warm-up games and sketches/dramas, including creative communication on radio, in churches and in un-churched situations. It also gives those who attend experience in developing their own creative communication through doing exactly that as a part of the course. It is informative, interactive, practical and fun. Those who attend should be ready to participate in creative arts as a part of the course, but nothing scary, we promise!

Charismatic Praxis:

Roy Todd presents this 5-day course

Whether evangelism is a struggle or a strength for you, this course will show you how to connect un-churched people to a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Fresh and inspirational, this module will help you to capture God's heart for 'lost' people as well as catch the raw passion of an evangelist. You'll be empowered with greater confidence than ever before to relevantly communicate your faith in the power of the Holy Spirit.

The course is taught by Roy Todd – an evangelist who works cross-denominationally and travels all over the world, communicating the Gospel and seeing it accompanied by incredible signs and wonders.

Cost: Course only - £180, Course + lunch - £205, Course + full board - £252
